

Marko Ivanovic

President of the Council of the Insurance Supervisory Agency of Montenegro

Marko Ivanović (born in 1976 in Berane) is a graduate agricultural engineer with extensive and many years of experience in the banking and insurance sectors in Montenegro.

He began his professional career in 2001 at Opportunity Bank AD Podgorica, where he gained strong operational and management experience in banking through various responsible positions, including client advisor and head of the leasing department.

After a successful banking phase, he moved to the insurance sector, where from 2008 to 2011 he served as Sales Director at Sava Insurance AD Podgorica, developing expertise in the field of life and non-life insurance. He further advanced his insurance career as Executive Director of Merkur Insurance AD Podgorica (2011–2014), where he was responsible for the strategic management and development of the company.

Returning to the banking sector, he continues to build his career in high management positions as Asset Management Manager at Komercijalna banka AD Budva, and as Director of the Corporate Banking Department at Atlas Banka AD Podgorica, where he led key business segments and worked with corporate clients.

His experience and expertise have also been recognized at the institutional level. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Investment and Development Fund of Montenegro (2021–2023). Since May 2023, he has served as President of the Council of the Insurance Supervisory Agency of Montenegro, as well as a member of the Financial Stability Council of Montenegro.

He lives in Podgorica. He is married and has three children.